Your event also includes:

All tables and chairs, linen tablecloths and napkins
Set-up, tear down, and professional banquet staff
3-hour event timeframe

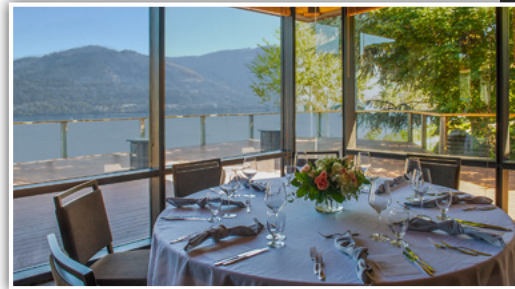

With a catered event we can set aside a courtesy block of guestrooms for your group.

We hold these rooms up until 60 days prior to the arrival date. Any rooms that have not been reserved by that date will be released back for sale to the general public. There is no financial obligation to you to hold these rooms. The responsibility falls on the individuals as they make their reservations. They do have 48 hours prior to arrival to cancel the room without penalty, and a two-night minimum stay is required.
